

EVERY JOURNEY. EVERY CHILD.

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE
LONDON 4-5 OCT. 2017

Taking global action to tackle air pollution and traffic danger on the journey to school:
a new priority for public health

---

CHILD HEALTH
INITIATIVE

SUPPORTED BY
MAYOR OF LONDON

FOUNDATION

DAY 1

LONDON CITY HALL,
WEDNESDAY 4TH OCTOBER 2017: INTERNATIONAL WALK TO SCHOOL DAY

08.00: ARRIVE AND COFFEE

09.30: OPENING PLENARY: Session moderator: Rt. Hon. Lord Robertson of Port Ellen, Chairman, FIA Foundation

Keynote speech: Sadiq Khan, Mayor of London

- Performance by pupils of Townsend Primary School, Southwark
- Signing ceremony – Breathe Life
- Film: Every Journey, Every Child
- Opening Speeches:
  - Rt. Hon. Lord Robertson of Port Ellen, Chairman, FIA Foundation
  - Mohammed Adjei Sowah, Mayor of Accra
  - Jean Todt, President of the FIA; UN Special Envoy for Road Safety
  - Fernando García Casas, State Secretary for International Cooperation and for Ibero-America & Caribbean, Government of Spain
  - Dr María Neira, Director, Public Health, Environmental and Social Determinants of Health, World Health Organization
  - Naysan Sahba, Director, Communication Division, UN Environment
  - Zoleka Mandela, Global Ambassador, Child Health Initiative

11.10: HIGH LEVEL DISCUSSION: ENSURING SAFE AND HEALTHY URBAN MOBILITY FOR EVERY CHILD

Moderator: Saul Billingsley, Executive Director, FIA Foundation

- Mark Watts, Executive Director, C40 Cities
- Anumita Roychowdhury, Executive Director – Research & Advocacy, CSE India
- Kevin Watkins, CEO, Save the Children UK
- Mike Penrose, Executive Director, UNICEF UK
- Dr Nhan Tran, Coordinator for Unintentional Injury Prevention, World Health Organization
- Rhoda Steel, Head of Corporate Social Responsibility, Johnson & Johnson UK

12.10: COMMITMENT ANNOUNCEMENT: ABERTIS & UNICEF SUPPORTING SAFE JOURNEYS TO SCHOOL

Moderator: Avi Silverman, Deputy Director, FIA Foundation & Road Safety Coordinator, Child Health Initiative

- Jorge Olague, UNICEF Global Fundraising Director
- Francisco Reynés Massanet, Chief Executive Officer of Abertis Infraestructura
- Javier Martos Mota, Executive Director, UNICEF Spain

12.30: LUNCH BREAK

13.45: PLENARY 2: CLEAN AIR FOR EVERY CHILD

Moderator: Sheila Watson, Deputy Director, FIA Foundation

- The role of mobility in cleaning up our air - Rob de Jong, Head of Transport & Health, UN Environment
- Dieselgate – how to prevent another scandal - Drew Kodjak, Executive Director, ICCT
- Cleaning up our cities – a view from India - Anumita Roychowdhury, CSE India
- Campaigning for cleaner air - Alison Cook, Director of Policy and Communications, British Lung Foundation
- Cities better by design - Matt Dillon, Associate Director, Arup

15.05: COFFEE BREAK

15.40: INITIATIVE ANNOUNCEMENT: IRAP & FEDEX - STAR RATING FOR SCHOOLS

15.45: PLENARY 3: SAFE & HEALTHY STREETS FOR EVERY CHILD

Moderator: Claudia Adriaola, Director of Road Safety & Health, WRI

- Vision Zero: Setting a Child Rights Agenda - Matts-Åke Belin, Project leader, Vision Zero Academy, Swedish Transport Administration
- Save Lives: Identifying priority policies for children - Dr Nhan Tran, Coordinator for Unintentional Injury Prevention, WHO
- Delivering the Healthy Streets agenda in London – Lucy Saunders, GLA Advisor, Healthy Streets
- Why politics matters for crossing the road: understanding road safety in Nairobi – Clare Cummings, Politics & Governance Programme, ODI
- Walking to school: building a movement - Jenni Wiggle, Director of Local Impact, Living Streets
- Securing global funding for road safety – Miquel Nadal, Secretary, FIA High Level Panel for Road Safety

17.00: DAY 1 CLOSING REMARKS:

- Rt. Hon. Lord Robertson of Port Ellen, Chairman, FIA Foundation

17.15 – 19.30: DRINKS RECEPTION, LONDON'S LIVING ROOM

- Special Guest Speaker: Shirley Rodrigues, Deputy Mayor for Environment and Energy, Greater London Authority

DAY 2

HILTON TOWER BRIDGE HOTEL
THURSDAY 5TH OCTOBER 2017

09.00: WELCOME & SCOPE OF DAY:

- Saul Billingsley, Executive Director, FIA Foundation

09.10: PLENARY PANEL: WINNABLE BATTLES – AND HOW WE WIN MORE

- * Delivering the Child Friendly City - Adrian Voce OBE, President, European Network for Child Friendly Cities
- * London's polluted schools: the social context - Alison Pridmore, Aether
- * Safe System in cities: making systemic change from bottom to top - Claudia Adriaola, Director of Road Safety & Health, WRI
- * Improving urban air quality: global policy for local streets - Rob de Jong, Head of Transport & Health, UN Environment

10.45: COFFEE

11.15: PARALLEL BREAKOUT WORKSHOPS

A) Strategies for safer journeys to school: evidence, advocacy, action –

Moderator: Jeffrey Witte, Executive Director, Amend

- * Designing safer cities – the Global Street Design Guide, Ankita Chachra, Program Manager, NACTO-Global Designing Cities Initiative
- * Star rating for schools – James Bradford, Programme Director, iRAP
- * Improving data and sharing success - Alexandre Santacreu, Safer City Streets, International Transport Forum
- * Botnar Child Road Safety Challenge - Michael Chippendale, Communications Manager, Global Road Safety Partnership
- * Delivering a Safe System for children – perspectives from major cities:
  - Naomi Baster, Senior Strategist, Transport for London
  - Mirjam Sidik, CEO, AIP Foundation
  - Ben Welle, Global Health & Road Safety Manager, WRI

B) Strategies for cleaner journeys to school: evidence, advocacy action

Moderator: Sheila Watson, Deputy Director, FIA Foundation

- * Developing a toolkit for schools: lessons from London, Nairobi and Delhi – Ben Hudson, Project Coordinator, LSX
- * Lessons from India - a city and community perspective - Prarthana Borah, India Director, Clean Air
- * Share the Road - Promoting non-motorised transport - Carly Koinange, Global Lead, Share the Road Initiative, UN Environment
- * The linkages between cleaner vehicles and other sustainable development objectives - Oliver Lah, Head of Research Unit, Wuppertal Institute
- * BreatheLife - city action for cleaner air - Tiy Chung, Communications Officer, Climate and Clean Air Coalition (CCAC)

13.30: LUNCH BREAK

14.30: CLOSING PLENARY

Pecha Kucha session: new ideas to tackle new challenges:

Moderator: Natalie Draisin, Director, North American Office, FIA Foundation

- ICPS Recife - Sideney A. Schreiner, Executive Director of Mobility Planning
- The Sidewalk Challenge - Bronwen Thornton, Development Director, Walk21
- Child-led social movements; a celebratory and evaluation led approach - Mary Williams, CEO, Brake
- Vision Zero for Children - Lauren Marchetti, Senior Strategic Advisor, Highway Safety Research Center, University of North Carolina
- Announcement: Walking the Talk: Action Brief for the Sustainable Development Goals, Lotte Brondum, Executive Director, Global Alliance of NGOs for Road Safety

15.00: CLOSING PANEL: HEALTHY JOURNEYS FOR CHILDREN & ADOLESCENTS – BUILDING A GLOBAL HEALTH & CHILD RIGHTS ALLIANCE

- Avi Silverman, Coordinator, FIA Foundation/UNICEF Child Road Traffic Injury Programme
- Torine Creppy, Interim President & CEO, Safe Kids Worldwide
- Jessica Beagley, Policy Officer, NCD Alliance
- Dr. Erin Sauber-Schatz, Team Lead, Transportation Safety Team, Division of Unintentional Injury Prevention, US National Center for Injury Prevention and Control
- Seung Lee, Senior Director, School Health and Nutrition, Save the Children
- Rob de Jong, Head of Transport & Health, UN Environment
- María Fernanda Rodríguez, President, Fundacion Gonzalo Rodriguez

16.00: CLOSE

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHIES (IN ORDER OF FIRST AGENDA APPEARANCE)

RT. HON. LORD ROBERTSON OF PORT ELLEN KT GCMG

Lord (George) Robertson is Chairman of the FIA Foundation, and led the international 'Make Roads Safe' campaign for ten years as Chairman of the Commission for Global Road Safety. He was NATO Secretary General from 1999-2003 and UK Defence Secretary from 1997-1999. He was Member of Parliament for Hamilton and then Hamilton South from 1978-1999. In 1993 he was elected to the Shadow Cabinet and served as Principal Opposition Spokesman on Scotland (the Shadow Secretary of State for Scotland). He is Special Adviser to BP, Chairman of BP Russian Investments Ltd and Senior Counselor at The Cohen Group (USA) and Chairman of the Ditchley Foundation. In 2004 he was personally appointed by the Queen as one of the sixteen Knights of the Thistle (KT), and awarded the GCMG (Knight Grand Cross of the Order of St Michael and St George). In 2011 he was appointed Chancellor of that Order. He was awarded the US Presidential Medal of Freedom, America's top civilian honour, in 2003, and has been awarded the highest national honours from many countries.

SADIQ KHAN

Sadiq Khan is Mayor of London. He was born in London and has lived here all his life. His parents moved to London from Pakistan in the 1960s. He was state-school educated in Tooting before studying Law at the University of North London. Sadiq and his wife have two daughters. Sadiq became a solicitor specialising in human rights and was a councillor in the London Borough of Wandsworth from 1994 to 2006. In 2005 Sadiq was elected MP for Tooting. He was appointed Minister of State for Communities in 2008 and later became Minister of State for Transport, becoming the first Muslim and first Asian to attend Cabinet. He was also Crossrail Minister. In 2013 Sadiq was appointed Shadow Minister for London, and in 2015 he led the Labour Party campaign in London in the General Election. Sadiq is a big sports fan, especially football, boxing and cricket. He ran the 2014 London Marathon, raising money for the Evening Standard's Dispossessed Fund.

MOHAMMED ADJEI SOWAH

Mayor Mohammed Adjei Sowah is Metropolitan Chief Executive for the Accra Metropolitan Assembly (AMA). He took up office in 2017, elected by the AMA following nomination by President Akufo-Addo of Ghana. Mayor Sowah is a Social Entrepreneur with over 23 years of work in local economic development especially in the area of informal economies and small business development. He was the Founder & Executive Director of the Social Enterprise Agenda. He also founded MAS Investments Ltd, a Company which provides a wide range of business solutions including small business management, general investments and business franchising. Mayor Sowah serves on the Advisory Board of The Beyond Aid Project, a social enterprise that builds capacity for young vulnerable women in rural and urban poor communities to add value to locally available raw materials for their economic empowerment. Mayor Sowah holds an MSc in Local Economic Development from the Institute of Local Government Studies, Ghana.

JEAN TODT

Jean Todt is President of the Fédération Internationale de l'Automobile (FIA). He was elected in 2009 and re-elected in 2013. He made road safety a priority of the federation through the FIA Action for Road Safety campaign, launched in 2011 in support of the UN Decade of Action for Road Safety. In 2015 he was appointed by UN Secretary General Ban Ki-Moon as his Special Envoy for Road Safety and in 2017 he was re-confirmed by the new UN Secretary General António Guterres. Jean Todt is a member of the Board of Trustees of the FIA Foundation; and one of the Founders, and the Vice-President, of ICM, an institute devoted to medical research for brain and spinal cord disorders. Jean Todt began his career in 1966 as a world championship rally co-driver, before joining Peugeot as Sporting Director in 1981. In 1993, he joined Ferrari Racing, later taking responsibility for all motor sport activity for the Ferrari-Maserati Group. He was appointed General Manager of Ferrari in 2004 and at the end of 2006 became Chief Executive Officer of the company until 2008. In 2011, Jean Todt was named Grand Croix de la Légion d'Honneur, the highest honour of the French Republic.

FERNANDO GARCÍA CASAS

Fernando García Casas was appointed as State Secretary for International Cooperation and for Ibero-America & the Caribbean at Spain's Council of Ministers on 2 December 2016. After joining the diplomatic corps in 1983, he was posted to the Permanent Representation to the Council of Europe in Strasbourg, then to the Spanish Embassy in Israel and the Permanent Representation to the United Nations in Geneva. Between 1992 and 2000, he was a diplomatic adviser to the International Department of the Cabinet Office of the Presidency of the Government, firstly, responsible for the Maghreb, the Middle East and Asia, and then, responsible for Ibero-American Affairs and the United Nations. During this time, he was also an associate professor in International Public Law at the Complutense University of Madrid and the Carlos III University. In May 2000, he was appointed as Director of the Department of International Studies and Relations of the Cabinet Office of the Presidency of the Government, running 20 departments of information and coordinating information from the European Councils. In July 2002, he joined the Secretariat for Ibero-American Cooperation in charge of communication. In 2005, he became the Assistant Director of the Cabinet Office of the Ibero-American Secretariat-General and headed up the office as from 2008. In 2014, he was appointed as the Spanish Ambassador to the Republic of Estonia, a post he held until 3 December 2016, when he was appointed as the State Secretary for International Cooperation and for Ibero-America. Born in Madrid in 1957, he holds a degree in Law and a degree in Philosophy and Literature. He holds a Diploma from the College of Europe (Bruges) and was awarded a Master of Arts from the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy in Boston.

DR MARÍA NEIRA

Dr Neira is the Director of the Department of Public Health and Environment at the World Health Organization (WHO). Previously, between September 2002 and August 2005, she was President of the Spanish Food Safety Agency and Vice Minister of Health and Consumer Affairs in Spain. Dr Neira was appointed in 1999 as Director of the Department of Control, Prevention and Eradication at WHO. Prior to that, Dr Neira had been working for WHO in Geneva since 1993, as Coordinator of the Global Task Force on Cholera Control. Before joining WHO, Dr Neira worked as Public Health Adviser in the Ministry of Health in Mozambique from 1991 to 1993. Earlier, in Kigali, Rwanda, she was a UN Public Health Advisor/Physician on assignment from the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP). From 1987 to 1989, Dr Neira was in Salvador and Honduras as Medical Coordinator for Médecins sans Frontières. Dr Neira started her professional career with three years in endocrinology and nutrition in the Necker Hospital and Hôpital Saint Louis in Paris from 1984 to 1987. Among other distinctions, Dr Neira has been awarded the Médaille de l'Ordre national du Mérite by the Government of France.

NAYSÁN SAHBA

Naysán Sahba was appointed as Director of UN Environment's Division of Communications and Public Information in January 2014. Throughout the 17 years of his professional career, which includes assignments with WHO and UNICEF in Africa and Asia, Mr. Sahba has been engaged in significant communication, advocacy, partnership and participation programmes in a wide range of domains related to sustainable development, such as health, education, climate change and disaster risk reduction. From 2009 to 2013, he served as UNICEF's Chief of Communication, Advocacy, Partnerships and Participation in Mozambique. Prior, Mr. Sahba worked in India with the Global Polio Eradication Initiative, supporting communication for immunization interventions in the state of Uttar Pradesh - one of the final frontiers in India's successful fight against wild poliovirus. In 2005 he transferred to UNICEF India's Delhi office from where he spearheaded UNICEF's entertainment-education programmes. Mr. Sahba began his communication for development career working with indigenous community radio stations in Latin America and producing multimedia content about sustainable approaches to development.

ZOLEKA MANDELA

Zoleka Mandela is a writer, activist and Nelson Mandela's granddaughter. She is chair of the Zoleka Mandela Foundation; and Global Ambassador for the Child Health Initiative, an international partnership coordinated by the FIA Foundation. Since the death of her 13 year old daughter, Zenani, in a car crash in 2010, Zoleka has become a prominent advocate for safer roads, and gave the opening speech at the 2015 Brasilia High Level Conference on Road Safety, alongside President of Brazil Dilma Roussef and WHO Director General Margaret Chan. In 2016 she was chosen as one of the BBC's '100 Women', which names 100 influential and inspirational women around the world every year. In 2013 she published her autobiography, which detailed the challenges of her childhood; battling addiction; and surviving cancer.

SAUL BILLINGSLEY

Saul Billingsley is Executive Director of the FIA Foundation. He is a Trustee of the International Road Assessment Programme (iRAP); and a member of the Board of Directors of Safe Kids Worldwide, a US-based non-profit working for child injury prevention. He served as a member of the Executive Board of the World Bank's Global Road Safety Facility from 2013-2016; on the Executive Committee of the Global Road Safety Partnership (GRSP) from 2007-2013, and was a Trustee of the UK Road Safety Foundation from 2008-2013. Saul was Deputy Director of the FIA Foundation from 2004-2013, a key member of the team which devised the Make Roads Safe campaign and the UN Decade of Action for Road Safety; and its first Programmes Director from 2001-2004. He began his career working in the UK parliament, following a Postgraduate Diploma in Journalism from Cardiff University.

MARK WATTS

Mark Watts serves as the Executive Director for C40 Cities Climate Leadership Group. Prior to joining C40, Mark was the Director of Arup's energy consulting team based in London. Focused on cities and sustainability, he led Arup's partnership with the C40 group of cities committed to tackling climate change. Prior to joining Arup as a Director in 2008, he was the climate change and sustainable transport adviser to the Mayor of London, in which role the London Evening Standard described him as "the intellectual force behind Ken Livingstone's drive to make London a leading light of the battle against global warming." He led the development of London's ground-breaking Climate Change Action Plan and the associated programme of projects to reduce London's carbon emissions by 60% by 2025. Mark is a member of the Yale Climate Dialogue and is a member of the Advisory Group at WRI's Ross Center for Sustainable Cities.

ANUMITA ROYCHOWDHURY

Anumita Roychowdhury is Executive Director - Research and Advocacy and head of the air pollution and clean transportation programme at the Centre for Science and Environment (CSE), based in New Delhi, India. She campaigns for clean air and public health and has researched and written widely on these topics. She co-authored the book 'Slow Murder: The deadly story of vehicular pollution in India' in 1996 that catalysed the clean air campaign in CSE. She authored a second book 'The Leapfrog Factor: Clearing the Air in Asian Cities' in 2006 to launch the second generation of action in cities. She has published numerous articles and contributed to the series on Citizens Report on the State of India's Environment. She has also served on national and international committees on air pollution and transportation related matters.

KEVIN WATKINS

Kevin Watkins is Chief Executive of Save the Children UK. He joined Save the Children in September 2016, after spending three years as Executive Director of the Overseas Development Institute. Previously, he held a senior academic role at the Brookings Institution, and acted as an adviser to the UN Special Envoy for Education, before which he spent seven years at the United Nations, as director and lead author of UNESCO's Education for All Global Monitoring Report and UNDP's Human Development Report. He is a senior visiting research fellow at Oxford University's Centre for Global Economic Governance and a Visiting Professor of International Development at the London School of Economics.

MIKE PENROSE

Mike Penrose has been Executive Director of Unicef UK since May 2016. He was previously CEO of Action Contre Le Faim in Paris, and Global Humanitarian Director at Save the Children International. He is a senior leader with a track record in the commercial, humanitarian, development and international sectors, and over 17 years experience working for NGOs and DFID. Mike's experience of crisis and emergency response is extensive and has included consultant deployments as Head of Operations for the UN WHO in Banda Aceh for the Tsunami response, DFID Operations Advisor for the Pakistan earthquake in 2005 and the Evacuation Team Leader for the inter-governmental civilian evacuations of Lebanon in 2006, Guinea in 2007, and DR Congo also in 2007.

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHIES (IN ORDER OF FIRST AGENDA APPEARANCE)

DR NHAN TRAN

Dr. Nhan Tran is the Coordinator of the Unintentional Injury Prevention Team (UIP) within the Department for Management of Noncommunicable Diseases, Disability, Violence and Injury Prevention (NVI) at the World Health Organization. He co-ordinates work in the areas of unintentional injury prevention (focused mainly on road safety), injury surveillance/surveys and alcohol and drug-related injuries. Dr. Tran brings a multi-disciplinary and systems' perspective to the field of injury prevention from his 20 years' experience as an educator, community activist, researcher, and civil servant. He has worked in diverse settings around the world and has contributed a wide range of activities, from the establishment of surveillance systems in Afghanistan to the analysis of policies to prevent road traffic deaths in Southeast Asia. For the last 6 years, he was the Manager of the Alliance for Health Policy and Systems Research within WHO where he lead the development of guidance and initiatives to facilitate the implementation and scale up of proven effective interventions.

RHODA STEEL

Rhoda Steel is Head of UK Corporate Social Responsibility for Johnson & Johnson. Rhoda joined Johnson & Johnson in 2007 and since 2011 has led the Cross-Sector CSR programme across the family of UK companies. She was responsible for setting up and shaping the programme in response to external needs of the UK community healthcare environment and currently manages the group's strategic partnerships with charities and social enterprises. She also leads the UK Employee Volunteering programme and represents Johnson & Johnson externally in this capacity. Prior to this, she was Johnsons Baby Senior Brand Manager in UK Consumer. Before joining Johnson & Johnson Rhoda worked in Petcare Marketing for Mars Inc after graduating from the Mars Management Development Programme. She is a Cambridge University graduate.

AVI SILVERMAN

Avi Silverman is Deputy Director of the FIA Foundation. Avi has also worked for UNICEF as the Global Coordinator of UNICEF's Child Road Traffic Injury Prevention programme. In this role he has coordinated UNICEF's global advocacy on child road traffic injury and has managed programming worldwide. He has played a prominent role in the FIA Foundation-led coalition which successfully advocated for the inclusion of road safety in the UN's Post-2015 Sustainable Development Goals. Avi also serves as a Trustee of the UK's Road Safety Foundation. Prior to joining the FIA Foundation, Avi was a Public Affairs Manager for the Local Government Association (LGA) of England and Wales. Previously, he worked as a journalist, commissioned by The Guardian newspaper in the UK and the Ha'aretz/International Herald Tribune in Israel. Avi has a Master's degree in International Relations from Cambridge University, a Postgraduate Diploma in journalism from City University London, and a BA in Modern History from Oxford University.

JORGE OLAGUE

Jorge Olague is UNICEF Global Fundraising Director. He started his career in the private sector, working for over ten years in General Motors Europe, in the areas of marketing and business development. In 2004 Jorge joined the World Food Program in Rome, where he specialised in private sector engagement and was appointed Head of Corporate Partnerships in 2010. He joined UNICEF in 2011 as Regional Chief of Private Fundraising and Partnerships, Latin America, in Panama. In July 2014 he was appointed UNICEF Global Fundraising Director, in Geneva. In this role he leads the global private sector resource mobilization efforts for UNICEF, working together with UNICEF's thirty four National Committees, Country Offices, donors and corporate partners to make a positive difference for the world's children. Jorge has a Master's degree in Economics, University of Zaragoza (Spain). Jorge Olague is Spanish and lives with his wife and two daughters in Geneva.

FRANCISCO REYNÉS MASSANET

Francisco Reynés Massanet has been Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of Abertis Infraestructuras since 2010. In 2015, he was appointed Vice-Chairman of the company. As a representative of Abertis Infraestructuras, he is a member of the Board of Directors of Sanef in Paris, Arteris in Sao Paulo, Hispasat in Madrid, Autopista Central in Chile, among others. Since 2015, he is also Chairman of Cellnex Telecom. Before joining Abertis, Francisco Reynés was Managing Director of Criteria CaixaCorp, La Caixa's business holding. In this role, he oversaw the company's stock market listing in October 2007. Previously he has also been a member of the Board of Directors of Gas Natural Fenosa, Aguas de Barcelona, Segur CaixaHolding, Boursorama, Adeslas and Port Aventura. He holds a degree in Industrial engineering, specializing in mechanical engineering, from the University of Barcelona and an MBA from IESE. In addition, he has attended Senior Management courses in the USA and Germany. He was born in Mallorca in 1963 and he is married, with five children.

JAVIER MARTOS MOTA

Javier Martos Mota is Executive Director of UNICEF Spain. Born in Madrid, he holds a bachelor's degree in Political Science and a Master Degree in Cooperation for Development. He joined UNICEF in 1999 as Project Officer of Public Policy in Mexico. In 2003 he came back to Spain to join the Spanish National Committee for UNICEF. Between 2006 and 2008 he became responsible for the Department of Cooperation and Emergencies supporting the relationship between UNICEF, the Spanish Government and the National Committee. In 2008 he was appointed as Director of Regional Territories for the Spanish National Committee being responsible for the design, monitoring and evaluation of the annual work plan in the Spanish Regions. In March 2013 he was appointed as Executive Director of UNICEF Spanish National Committee. He is also a member of the UNICEF Standing Group of National Committees. In the academic field, Javier is an expert in social leadership and cooperation for development, and he is an active member of the Social Leadership Forum of an independent non-profit international university institution, ESADE.

SHEILA WATSON

Sheila Watson is Deputy Director & Director of Environment and Research at the FIA Foundation. She is also Executive Secretary to the Global Fuel Economy Initiative, which seeks to support the development of fuel economy policies across the world. An economist, with many years' experience as an advisor and consultant, her most recent role was as Senior Special Adviser to the UK Labour government at the Department for Trade and Industry, The Privy Council, the Department of Environment, Food and Rural Affairs, and the Foreign Office. During the 10 years she spent at the heart of the UK government, she specialised in a range of environmental and resource protection issues from sustainable farming and food production to international climate security. Her former roles include Deputy Director of the Centre for Local Economic Strategies, and Policy Researcher at the Institute for Fiscal Studies. Sheila has an Honours Degree from the University of Oxford, and an MSc in Economics from Birkbeck College, London.

ROB DE JONG

Rob de Jong is Head of the Air Quality and Mobility Unit in UN Environment's Division of Technology, Industry and Economics (DTIE). He holds degrees in Environmental Engineering and Environmental Policy. Prior to joining the United Nations he worked as a consultant for The Netherlands Government. In 1996 he joined UN-HABITAT to work for the joint UNEP/ UN-HABITAT Sustainable Cities Programme, supporting cities to develop their urban environmental planning and management capacities. In 1998 he joined UN Environment to work on urban environment issues. In 2000 he became the Special Assistant for the Director of the Division of Policy Development and Law in UN Environment. From 2002 he has been responsible for UN Environment's Urban Environment Unit, followed by the Transport Unit since 2008. Rob de Jong leads UN Environment's work on transport and air quality, including the Partnership for Clean Fuels and Vehicles (PCFV), the Global Fuel Economy Initiative (GFEI), Share the Road (StR) and the Electric Mobility Initiative (eMob).

DREW KODJAK

Drew Kodjak is Executive Director of the International Council on Clean Transportation (ICCT). Prior to joining the ICCT in 2005, Mr Kodjak served as Program Director for the DC-based National Commission on Energy Policy (NCEP), a bipartisan 16-member commission of energy experts that released a highly influential report, 'Ending the Energy Stalemate', in December 2004. Before the NCEP, Mr. Kodjak spent several years as an Attorney-Advisor to the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency's Office of Transportation and Air Quality in Ann Arbor, MI. During his tenure with the EPA, Mr. Kodjak was awarded the EPA Gold Medal for his work on the heavy-duty diesel rule. Mr. Kodjak is a member of the bar associations of Minnesota, New Jersey, and the District of Columbia Court of Appeals. For more than two decades, Mr. Kodjak has worked to develop effective policies to control air pollution and improve energy efficiency of motor vehicles.

ALISON COOK

Dr Alison Cook is Director of Policy and Communications at the British Lung Foundation. Dr Cook worked as a broadcast journalist and programme editor for the BBC, in news and current affairs for over 12 years, before starting a second career in policy and strategic communications, including as a policy advisor to Ministers, in both the Department of Health and Number 10. Her policy team at the British Lung Foundation are working on air quality, smoking and improving prevention, diagnosis and treatment of all lung diseases. Dr Cook is scientist, with a PhD in signals processing in the nervous system, looking at pain modulation and a post-doctorate in colour vision at University College London.

MATT DILLON

Matt is an Associate Director in Arup's City Economics team, and specialises in providing advice on transport and infrastructure to clients including the Greater London Authority, the Department for Transport, High Speed 2, the World Bank and both Heathrow and Gatwick airports. Matt is also the coordinator of the transport business cases group within Arup. Matt has a particular interest in what draws people to cities, and how the changing quality of life for both adults and children is influencing decisions about where people decide to live.

CLAUDIA ADRIAZOLA

Claudia Adriazola is Health & Road Safety Program Director at World Resources Institute's WRI Ross Center for Sustainable Cities. She works on the global strategy for addressing the public health impact that comes from urban transportation and urban development. Claudia has held different managerial positions in the Peruvian public sector. She was the Executive Manager of the National Council of Road Safety in the Ministry of Transport. After her studies in Transport Management in Germany, she was appointed as General Director of Land Transportation in the Ministry of Transport in Peru. She has been the Legal Manager of the Headquarters of the Superintendence of Public Registries, an agency of the Ministry of Justice. Prior to returning to graduate school in the United States, Claudia worked as Public/Private Partnership Specialist and Legal Adviser in PROINVERSION, an agency of the Ministry of Economics. Claudia graduated as a lawyer in her hometown of Arequipa, Peru. She was trained in Germany in Transport Management and in 2008 graduated with an Executive Master of Public Administration and a Master of Arts in International Relations from the Maxwell School of Public Administration at Syracuse University, New York, in the United States.

MATTS-ÅKE BELIN

Dr Matts-Åke Belin is Senior Advisor at the Swedish Transport Administration, responsible for the development of Vision Zero Academy. He is also Adjunct Professor at the KTH Royal Institute of Technology. He has a long history within the Swedish government and works primarily with overall safety policies, strategies and collaboration with different stakeholders. In 2007 - 2009 Dr Belin worked for World Health Organization where he participated in the development of global road safety strategies and global partnerships. Dr Belin has also chaired the technical committee 3.1 on National Road Safety Policies and Programme, World Road Association. Dr Belin is also the Swedish delegate in UN Road Safety Collaboration and the international representative at the US Transportation Research Board (TRB) standing committee ANB 10 Transportation Safety Management. Dr Belin is also senior policy adviser to the US Road to Zero coalition.

LUCY SAUNDERS

Lucy Saunders is a Consultant in Public Health specialising in transport, public realm and planning. In 2015 she was awarded Transport Planner of the Year by the Transport Planning Society and her work won awards from the international UITP and UK Chartered Institute for Highways and Transportation. Lucy currently leads on the integration of transport and public health in London supporting Transport for London, boroughs and advocacy organisations. Lucy works across both the Greater London Authority and Transport for London embedding the Healthy Streets Approach in policy and practice. In 2014 TfL became the first transport authority in the world to publish a Health Action Plan which Lucy wrote and led its 3-year implementation. Lucy has worked as a Public Health Specialist across a wide range of organisations from local to international level including NHS, government, academic, private and voluntary sector. She advises the World Health Organization and the UK Government Departments for Transport and Health and the National Institute for Health and Care Excellence (NICE).

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHIES (IN ORDER OF FIRST AGENDA APPEARANCE)

---

CLARE CUMMINGS

Clare Cummings is a Senior Research Officer at the Overseas Development Institute (ODI). Clare joined the Politics and Governance team at ODI in June 2014. Clare specialises in political economy analysis of service delivery, public sector reform, and urbanisation. Her work includes analysis of water, sanitation, transport and health services in urban areas and largely focuses on sub-Saharan Africa. She co-leads the development of ODI's urbanisation work and is involved in on-going work into adaptive, locally-led and politically smart development programming. Clare is fluent in French, Spanish, and English, and has experience of working in the Tanzania, Nigeria, India, Mexico and Burundi, among others. Clare holds a masters in International Development Studies from the University of Amsterdam.

JENNI WIGGLE

Jenni Wiggle is Director of Local Impact for Living Streets, responsible for the management and direction of the Local Impact Department, overseeing a team delivering walking projects across the country. Alongside ensuring all department projects are delivered on time and to budget, she has responsibility for ensuring the progress on Living Streets organisational strategy and promoting innovation. Jenni is an experienced project manager with key expertise in schools, sustainability and behaviour change. With a background in education, Jenni has worked in the charity sector for more than 10 years, successfully delivering projects for cross-UK and international audiences.

MIQUEL NADAL

Miquel Nadal is Secretary of the FIA High Level Panel for Road Safety; and Trustee of the FIA Foundation. He was previously Director of the RACC Foundation a position he held since 2004, where he had focused on mobility and infrastructure issues. At present, he is also a member of the Board of ERTICO, iRAP and several FIA Mobility governing bodies. He is Secretary of the Board of CIDOB (an international relations think-tank based in Barcelona) and is a member of the Board of Circulo de Economía, Spain's most prestigious economic think-tank.

ADRIAN VOCE OBE

Adrian is the author of Policy for Play (Policy Press, 2015) and, since November 2016, President of the European Network for Child-Friendly Cities. Adrian was the main government advisor on the UK Government's national Play Strategy for England. From 2004-2011, as chair, then director of the Children's Play Council and founding director of Play England, he played the key role in securing almost £350m of public funding for children's play and led the support for every local authority in England to produce an area wide play strategy as the basis for spending their share of the money. Previously, after a long career as a playworker, Adrian was the first director of London Play (1998-2004), securing policy commitments for children's play from the London Mayor and drafting the Mayor's guidance on play strategies for the London Boroughs. Adrian has produced a number of other influential publications and appeared often in the national media speaking and writing about play policy. He was awarded an OBE for services to children in 2011.

ALISON PRIDMORE

Dr Alison Pridmore is a Principal Consultant at Aether. Alison is a transport expert with over fifteen years' experience of analysing transport from a sustainable development perspective. This experience includes the use of quantitative and qualitative methods and the development and implementation of mitigation opportunities with households, industry and government stakeholders. Alison has an in-depth understanding of the role of technical and behavioural measures in reducing transport emissions and energy use. Related to this Alison's PhD examined the role that social influence can play in the adoption of new lower emission vehicles. Alison previous positions include Transport Policy Advisor at the UK's Sustainable Development Commission and grant funded researcher at the European Commission's Joint Research Centre.

JEFFREY WITTE

Jeffrey Witte is Executive Director of Amend, a nongovernmental organization that develops, implements, and evaluates evidence-based programs to reduce the incidence of road traffic injury in sub-Saharan Africa. Amend has offices in Tanzania, Mozambique, and Ghana, and projects in a dozen countries across Africa. Mr. Witte is also the founding and current President of the Board of Directors for the Global Alliance of NGOs for Road Safety. As the Board President, he helps further the Alliance mission to mobilize and empower NGOs working in road safety around the world. Before starting work in road safety about 10 years ago, Mr. Witte was variously an economics student, a professional musician, and a bartender.

ANKITA CHAKRA

Ankita joined NACTO in 2015 as Program Associate for the Global Designing Cities Initiative. Prior to joining NACTO, Ankita worked as an Urban Designer for the planning studio at Skidmore, Owing and Merrill in San Francisco, where she primarily contributed towards mixed-use planning and transit-oriented urban projects. Her work experience varies greatly from detailed architectural design projects to large scale planning efforts throughout India, China, Malaysia, and the United States. She has been actively involved in academia and research with Columbia University, New York and Sushant School of Art and Architecture, Gurgaon, India. Ankita also volunteers for Asia Initiatives, a non-profit committed to poverty alleviation and sustainable development through the use of Social Capital Credits. Ankita received her Masters in Urban Design from Columbia University and her Bachelor's Degree in Architecture from the Sushant School of Art and Architecture. She was a recipient of the Lucille Smyser Lowenfish Memorial Prize in 2013 at the Graduate School of Architecture, Planning & Preservation for best design project and received the ManSingh Rana Award for best thesis during her undergraduate studies.

JAMES BRADFORD

James Bradford was appointed as iRAP's Global Product Director in 2015, following 8 years as iRAP's Global Operation Manager. He has responsibility for iRAP protocols and associated tools, focusing on consistent and high quality delivery of iRAP services around the world. This includes overseeing the development of the ViDA (iRAP online analysis tool) and responsibility for the development and maintenance of iRAP accredited suppliers. Previously, James Bradford served at TRL for 5 years, where he was involved with the development of pavement condition monitoring systems, including the development of the SCANNER specification vehicle and the Highway Agencies Traffic Speed Defectometer. Prior to TRL James Bradford was as a design engineer for Dyson Appliances where he was part of the design team for the DC07 vacuum cleaner.

ALEXANDRE SANTACREU

Alexandre works at the International Transport Forum at the OECD in Paris, where he's in charge of road safety policy analysis. In particular, he manages an initiative called Safer City Streets: a global network of cities learning from each other's road safety strategies and data collection methods. Before joining the ITF, Alexandre worked at Transport for London. With TfL, he developed performance indicators which helped both the definition and the implementation of London's 2020 road safety plan.

MICHAEL CHIPPENDALE

Michael Chippendale is Head of Communications for the Global Road Safety Partnership

NAOMI BASTER

Naomi is a Principal Strategy Planner in the Road Safety team at Transport for London. The team has responsibility for road safety policy and ensuring the delivery of London's casualty reduction targets. Naomi has seven years' experience in transport safety policy at both national and London-wide levels, and is currently developing London's Vision Zero approach.

MIRJAM SIDIK

Mirjam Sidik is Chief Executive of AIP Foundation. Mirjam joined AIP Foundation in 2005 and has acted as its CEO since 2013. For more than 10 years, she has used her expertise and experience to build AIP Foundation into a renowned implementer of global road safety solutions. She has cultivated strong working relationships with governments, research institutes, and private stakeholders in Vietnam, Cambodia, China, Thailand, Tanzania, and Uganda. In December 2014, Mirjam was presented the Royal Order of Sahametrei Medal by Cambodian Deputy Prime Minister Sar Kheng for her contributions to road safety efforts. Mirjam graduated from Justus-Liebig University in Germany and holds a Master's Degree in Economic Sciences.

BEN WELLE

Ben Welle is a senior associate urban and transportation planner with EMBARQ, a signature initiative of the World Resources Institute, where he works to reduce traffic fatalities, improve the environment and increase quality of life through sustainable transport and urban development. Ben's work includes leading global research and projects, particularly in the areas of traffic safety and health; development of tools that cities can use to create cities safer, cleaner and more active by design; collaborating on sustainable transport projects and coordinating with partners from around the world. Prior to working at EMBARQ, he was assistant director of the Center for City Park Excellence at the Trust for Public Land in Washington, D.C., researching and consulting on city parks, public space, green infrastructure, active transport and related economic impact. He has additional background in community development and positions in state government in the State of Minnesota, USA. Ben has a Master's degree in urban and regional planning from the University of Minnesota and a bachelor's degree from Hamline University, St. Paul, USA.

BEN HUDSON

As programme coordinator at London Sustainability Exchange (LSx), Ben Hudson oversees pollution projects and contributes to insight and analysis. Ben has helped develop air pollution toolkits in both primary and secondary schools, and supported a pollution-busting business programmes including better driving habits for fleets. In 2017, he helped co-ordinate an international exchange of LSx's Cleaner Air 4 Schools toolkit with schools in London, Nairobi and New Delhi. He represents LSx at the UCL Integrated Network for Social Sustainability, the London Region Pollution Study Group and alongside the NEA, provided training at the London Big Energy Saving Network training session for DBEIS. Ben completed an MSc in Climate Change Management at Birkbeck College, University of London, focusing his dissertation on individual engagement and climate change.

PRARTHANA BORAH

Prarthana Borah is India Director of Clean Air Asia. She has worked locally and nationally on both micro and macro-level environmental programmes and has an in-depth understanding of India's overall developmental needs. Ms Borah has a long track record of generating and managing resources for large projects, and has been instrumental in building partnerships with the government, the private sector, international donors and the community for successful project implementation. Ms Borah has been team lead on a range of projects, including Education for Sustainable Development, Culture as a Resource for Sustainability, and Environmental Education for Children and Youth. She has also worked closely with government ministries in India in the spheres of environment and education, and has operated in different locations throughout the country, including Delhi, Gujarat and Northeast India. She previously worked for the Centre for Environment Education in India, where for 10 years she was team lead for resource mobilization and strategic partnerships.

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHIES (IN ORDER OF FIRST AGENDA APPEARANCE)

---

CARLY KOINAGE

Carly Koinage is Sustainable Transport Manager in the Transport Unit of UN Environment. She is the component lead for the 'Share the Road' initiative, which promotes systematic investments in walking and cycling road infrastructure. Prior to joining UNEP, Carly worked for the UN-Habitat Urban Mobility Team, managing the Sustainable Transport Solutions for East Africa Cities Programme. Before this, Carly was based in the UK working for Transport for London, on the Barclays Cycle Hire and London Low Emission Zone schemes.

OLIVER LAH

Oliver Lah is heading up the Mobility and International Cooperation Unit at the Wuppertal Institute and focuses on governance, climate change mitigation policy analysis and sustainable urban development. Oliver is active in a number of projects focusing on sustainable development and climate action in Europe, Asia, Africa and Latin America and leads the urban mobility SOLUTIONS network and the Urban Electric Mobility Initiative (UEMI). Oliver worked with international organisations, such as the OECD/ITF, UN-Habitat, UNEP and GIZ on urban mobility issues. He was a Lead Author for the Fifth IPCC Assessment Report and was a member of the Habitat III Policy Unit on Urban Services and Technology. He teaches at the universities of Berlin and Rotterdam and coordinates the non-profit Climate Action Implementation Facility, which works on capacity building and provides project implementation support. Prior to that Oliver worked for the New Zealand government, the University of Munich and the Minister of State to the German Federal Chancellor. He holds a Bachelor of Arts with Honours in Political Science, and a Master of Environmental Studies from Victoria University of Wellington.

TIY CHUNG

Tiy Chung is a Communications Officer at the Climate and Clean Air Coalition. He is a Fiji national with over ten years' experience in communications, outreach, and environmental advocacy. He has worked as a journalist, filmmaker, and strategic communications specialist, throughout the Asia-Pacific region. His past environmental advocacy work has included, fisheries protection, deforestation, sustainable consumption and production, and climate change. Most recently Tiy was the Regional Communications Specialist for a regional Integrated Water Resources Management (IWRM) project covering 13 Pacific Island Countries at the Secretariat of the Pacific Community. He is a former Fulbright scholar and has a Masters in Environmental Science and Policy from Clark University, Massachusetts, USA, and a Masters in Journalism from the University of Technology Sydney, Australia.

NATALIE DRAISIN

Natalie Draisin is the Director of the North American Office and the United Nations Representative for the FIA Foundation. She advocated for the inclusion of road safety in the UN Sustainable Development Goals, and secured language prioritizing a safe and healthy journey to school for all children in the UN Habitat III New Urban Agenda. For the Transportation Research Board, she serves as co-chair of the safety culture subcommittee, and is a Board Member of the National Association of Women Highway Safety Leaders. Prior to joining the FIA Foundation, she worked with the WHO and National Transportation Safety Board. She has worked alongside Community Health Workers in Kenya, acted as a Leadership Fellow with the Pew Charitable Trusts, and cycled across the US to fundraise for cancer research. A Sommer Scholar, Natalie has an MPH/MBA from the Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health, and a BA in public health from Johns Hopkins University.

BRONWEN THORNTON

Bronwen Thornton is Development Director for Walk21. She is responsible for extending the reach of the international conference series and the International Charter for Walking. With a background in architecture, sociology and transport, Bronwen has worked for government, business and charities in Australia and the United Kingdom. She has developed strategic transportation policies and delivered key programs to support walking and cycling. She runs professional training and community workshops in Australia, Britain and Canada. Bronwen has on-street experience undertaking walkability audits, reviewing transport and urban designs and negotiating positive outcomes for better communities.

MARY WILLIAMS OBE

Mary Williams OBE, Brake's Chief Executive, founded Brake in 1995 and was awarded an OBE in the 2000 New Year's Honours list for services to road safety. Mary continues to grow Brake's services in the UK and New Zealand, as well as creating a global strategy to promote road safety around the world.

LAUREN MARCHETTI

Lauren Marchetti is a senior strategic advisor at the Highway Safety Research Center (HRSC), University of North Carolina. Lauren served as director of the National Center for Safe Routes to School Center (National Center) within HSRC from May 2006 until her retirement in January 2016. Prior to that time, she served as associate director of the Pedestrian and Bicycle Information Center, also part of HSRC, for seven years. In her current position, Lauren is continuing her work to advance safe walking and bicycling with a focus on youth and the trip to school. Lauren has led projects for many organizations including the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, Federal Highway Administration, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation and the North Carolina Governor's Highway Safety Program. In 2012, Lauren received, on behalf of the National Center, the Harvard Bright Ideas in Government Award for the work of the Center to develop a national data system that enabled documentation and evaluation of local Safe Routes to School projects across the country. As part of a project for the US Department of Transportation, Lauren established National Walk to School Day in 1997, and joined with representatives from Canada and the United Kingdom to establish International Walk to School Day in 2000.

LOTTE BRONDUM

Lotte Brondum is Executive Director of the Global Alliance of NGOs for Road Safety. She started with the Alliance Secretariat in late 2014 as its first employee. Previously, Ms. Brondum worked in Mozambique, Zimbabwe, and Vietnam with the Danish government. She worked as an advisor on HIV/AIDS issues, and with Coca-Cola Sabco, implementing an employer's health program. She served as the Director of International Development at AIP Foundation, which is a member of the Alliance. While at AIP Foundation, Lotte was instrumental in expanding road injury and fatality-prevention programs in Asia and Africa and served a central role for developing global partnerships. Ms. Brondum has a bachelor's degree in nursing science from the University of Copenhagen, advanced degrees in epidemiology from the London School of Hygiene & Tropical Medicine, and a master's degree in medical anthropology from Aarhus University.

TORINE CREPPY

Torine Brooks Creppy is Acting President and Chief Programs Officer of Safe Kids Worldwide. With extensive experience in non-profit management and program development, Ms. Creppy oversees a variety of SKW's essential functions — including strategic planning and decision-making, budgeting, and program development, implementation and evaluation. She has served at Safe Kids Worldwide since 1999, where her previous positions have included Chief of Staff, Operations Manager and HR Manager. Prior to joining SKW, she held managerial and administrative positions with an association and services company. With a BA in Telecommunications from Morgan State University, Ms. Creppy is a member of the American Public Health Association, ASAE & The Center for Association Leadership, NAACP, National Head Start Association, and several other organizations.

JESSICA BEAGLEY

Jessica Beagley is Policy Research Officer for the NCD Alliance. In addition to carrying out policy research to inform NCD Alliance's advocacy priorities, Jess's work also spans accountability and partnerships. She has particular interest in the links between environment and NCDs, especially in terms of urbanisation and climate change. Prior to this, Jess worked with the International Diabetes Federation in Brussels, Belgium on health education and epidemiology. Jess has a degree in physiology from the University of Oxford, and during her undergraduate studies spent a summer in Samraong, Cambodia in a team instigating health promotion programmes.

DR. ERIN SAUBER-SCHATZ

Erin Sauber-Schatz, PhD, MPH, serves as the team lead of the Transportation Safety Team in the Division of Unintentional Injury Prevention at the US Centers for Disease Control and Injury Prevention. She is responsible for overseeing all of CDC's transportation safety activities which includes motor vehicle injury prevention, a CDC winnable battle. The Transportation safety Team's focus areas include seat belt use, child passenger safety, safe teen driving, alcohol-impaired driving, tribal motor vehicle injury prevention, and older adult mobility. She began her career at CDC in the Epidemic Intelligence Service working at the Florida Department of Health with a focus in maternal and child health. She has served as an epidemiologist on the Transportation Safety Team with subject matter expertise in child passenger safety and safe teen driving including the Parents Are the Key campaign, CDC's national campaign to increase awareness among parents of proven steps to keep teen drivers safer. Dr Sauber-Schatz received her bachelor of arts degree in biology with a minor in French from Texas A&M University in College Station, Texas, her MPH in epidemiology from the Texas A&M School of Rural Public Health in College Station, Texas, and her PhD in epidemiology and a certificate in public health preparedness and disaster response from the University of Pittsburgh, Graduate School of Public Health, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. She is a Commander in the United States Public Health Service.

SEUNG LEE

Seung Lee is Senior Director, School Health and Nutrition (SHN) for Save the Children USA. She has over 20 years of experience in international development specialising in health and education. She has a background in partnership building among governments and international agencies and working cross-sectorally between health and education. Ms. Lee joined Save the Children in January 2004 as the SHN Advisor for Africa, based in Ethiopia. She returned to Washington, DC in March 2006 and is now the Senior Director for SHN. Through her work with Save the Children, Ms. Lee has provided strategic direction and technical assistance to Save the Children's SHN programs and leads a team of SHN specialists to ensure quality programming globally. She supports the FRESH (Focusing on Resources on Effective School Health) partnership and is a steering committee member of the UNAIDS Inter-Agency Task Team on Education (IATT) and a Member of the STH Advisory Committee. Previously, she worked for the World Bank supporting national level SHN efforts in Africa and assisted in the World Bank's support for HIV/AIDS and education programming. Ms. Lee has a BA from Dartmouth College and an MA from Johns Hopkins School of Advanced International Studies

MARÍA FERNANDA RODRÍGUEZ

Maria (Nani) Fernanda Rodríguez is President of the Fundación Gonzalo Rodríguez, a Uruguayan non-governmental organisation working on child safety across Latin America. Following the death of Nani's brother, racing driver Gonzalo 'Gonchi' Rodríguez, the Fundación Gonzalo Rodríguez was created in October 2000, at the initiative of Nani, Gonzalo's friends and fans, who believed that Gonchi's achievements were not to be lost, and that with his same energy and enthusiasm a better world for future generations could be built. Nani has also served as Chairman of the Latin New Car Assessment Programme, which undertakes independent crash tests.

For more information:

www.childhealthinitiative.org

 @childhealthGI

 #everylife